

Terms and Conditions for BDNest.com

The following terms apply at BDNest.com as of 1 September 2015.

1. Subscription

A BDNest.com web space subscription provides access to the use of BDNest.com's mail servers. All subscriptions of more than 2 GB space include an unlimited number of e-mail accounts. A BDNest.com web space subscription automatically gives the user the right to set up a website. The amount of disk space available depends on the type of subscription chosen. Subscription periods last for 12 months at a time. 60 days before a 12-month subscription period, the subscriber will be sent a notification of the payment of renewal fees, unless the subscription is cancelled as stated in section 1.6. If the renewal fees are not paid within 45 days after the notification, the subscription will be automatically deactivated temporarily for 30 days starting from the renewal date. If the renewal fees are paid within these 30 days (if interest becomes applicable, it must also be paid as stated in section 3.5), the subscription will be reactivated. Otherwise, after 30 days of non-payment, the domain and server space of the subscriber will be automatically deleted permanently.

In relationships between consumer and retailer, a right of withdrawal exists by which the customer has the right of withdrawing an order till 15 days after placing the order and the payment will be refunded to clients Bank A/C except the charge for domain and its setup as domains are unique and cannot be allotted to any other client in general. By ordering, the customer accepts that any right of withdrawal after 15 days from the date of placing the order will be dismissed.

Nor it is permitted to store erotic, pornographic or other offensive material on servers owned by BDNest.com. It is entirely BDNest.com's decision to determine whether material belongs to one or more of the above categories, and the company reserves the right to delete any such material at any time without notice. In the event of such material being deleted the customer cannot advance any claim against BDNest.com related to the deletion.

Traffic is basically unlimited, but must not exceed the bandwidth reserved according to the plan purchased by the customer. Traffic must be normal in nature and not disrupt that of other customers. If a customer's traffic disrupts that of others, BDNest.com reserves the

In the event of transgression of this rule, BDNest.com reserves the right to inform the relevant authority and submit log details etc. to that authority. BDNest.com reserves the right to demand payment for time spent in relation to such information and its submission to the relevant authority.

BDNest.com provides unlimited access to standard scripts and the use of other scripts. However, the use of other scripts is only permitted as long as it does not burden the servers to an unreasonable degree.

All templates placed at the disposal of customers by BDNest.com remain the property of BDNest.com regardless of whether individual templates have been modified or not. No templates placed at customers' disposal by BDNest.com may be distributed to others on either a commercial or non-commercial basis. All templates are provided with non-exclusive rights. All other access to user data requires the acceptance of the customer or a court order.

1.5. Responsibility

The customer's use of a BDNest.com subscription is entirely at his/her own risk. BDNest.com cannot be held responsible for the contents, including accuracy, lawfulness, completeness etc. of the information which the customer receives or sends via the Internet. BDNest.com can therefore not be held responsible for losses - direct or indirect - immaterial violations or other circumstances that arise as a result of the use of information found on the Internet.

BDNest.com cannot be held responsible for losses or other circumstances that may arise as a result of unavailability of access to services or information on the Internet, regardless of the reason for such unavailability. BDNest.com accepts no responsibility for any loss of personal data, including the loss or damage of installed software, etc.

BDNest.com does not accept any responsibility for access gained by unauthorized persons to the customer's data or systems or damage incurred as a result of this. The customer is responsible for any costs related to orders placed for services via the Internet and the use of payment systems on the Internet.

Exemptions of liability contained in these Terms and Conditions apply even in the event of gross negligence on the part of BDNest.com.

1.6. Cancellation of subscriptions

A subscription can be cancelled at any time by the customer. Since the subscription period lasts for 12 months and is renewed at least 15 days before the end of each 12-month period, a cancellation must be received by BDNest.com 30 days before the 12-month subscription period, at the latest. The unused portion of any advance payment will not be refunded. If the cancellation is not sent to BDNest.com in time, the customer is obliged to pay the subscription fee for the following 12-month period. Cancellation is possible by contacting the BDNest.com Support who via e-mail will send a link to cancellation of the subscription. The mail is sent to the e-mail address which is registered under the subscription's contact information. The customer must click the sent link and confirm the cancellation, by entering the password of the subscription.

Cancellation can also be done by sending a signed letter by mail at change_request@bdnest.com

Example: If the subscription was ordered January 1st 2015 the subscription lasts until December 31st 2015 and if the customer does not wish to continue the subscription for the following year (2016), the subscription must be cancelled before November 30, 2015.

When BDNest.com has received a cancellation, the customer will receive a notice of receipt via e-mail regarding the cancellation from BDNest.com. If the customer cannot see any such receipt within eight days he or she must send a new cancellation. If BDNest.com chooses to terminate specific subscription types or special services, BDNest.com may cancel a subscription with one month's notice. In such circumstances, the unused portion of any advance payment will of course be refunded.

If BDNest.com makes significant changes which depreciate the Terms and Conditions, customers shall be entitled to cancel their subscriptions with one month's notice. The unused portion of any advance payment will also, as an exception, be refunded. The subscription must in no way be used to gain unauthorized access to systems connected to the Internet. If any such activities or criminal acts come to the notice of BDNest.com, regardless of the country the laws of which underlie the violation, the subscription will be immediately terminated and BDNest.com reserves the right to pass on all relevant information to the relevant authorities. BDNest.com also has the right to annul a subscription without notice with immediate effect and without compensation or reimbursement of any kind if the customer does not abide by these Terms and Conditions, if a party wastes or abuses resources available on the Internet, disrupts the functionality of the Internet, infringes netiquette valid at any given moment, e.g. by passing on information about other people's private affairs or in other ways inconveniencing other users of the Internet. Data from homepages and mail systems will generally be deleted seven days after termination of a subscription.

2. Domains

On ordering a domain, the buyer must declare that the person registering accepts that use of the domain name does not violate the name or trademark rights of third parties or otherwise be considered to contravene legislation. Domain names are registered in the customer's own name and at the request of the customer. In this respect, BDNest.com acts as an intermediary. BDNest.com will inform the customer when the registration of the domain name has taken place.

BDNest.com assumes no responsibilities for the domain name if it is transferred or cancelled, or if the web space is deleted. The domain name will be "registered with" / "re-delegated to" BDNest.com's partners. These may be with domain registrars or directly with the individual domain administrator of the Top Level Domain concerned. At the end of each subscription period the customer will receive an invoice from BDNest.com for the annual domain fee, unless otherwise stated. This applies regardless of whether the domain is pointed to DNS servers at BDNest.com or someplace else.

In the event of wrongly ordered domains (spelling mistakes, name errors or similar) the registration fee will not be repayable. BDNest.com will, however, endeavor to correct the domain name so long as registration has not yet taken place.

If BDNest.com is responsible for submitting an erroneous order of a domain name, BDNest.com will either refund the registration fee or offer registration of the correct domain name.

It is the customer's own responsibility to keep BDNest.com and possible top-level domain authorities updated regarding changes of address or other contact information.
